VIII. ADJOURNMENT

Waycross, Georgia Code of Ordinances

Sec. 2-66. - Decorum.

- (a) The mayor, commissioners, staff and citizens in attendance shall conduct themselves in a professional and respectful manner. Except when specifically authorized by the mayor, all remarks, comments and questions shall be directed to the mayor and not to individual commissioners, staff or citizens in attendance. A commissioner, staff or citizen in attendance shall not speak at a meeting until the commissioner, staff or citizen in attendance has been recognized by the mayor and granted permission to speak or ask a question. All comments or questions made by commissioners, staff or citizens in attendance shall address the motion that is being discussed or be pertinent to the agenda item before the commission. Any and all personal remarks, comments or questions are inappropriate.
- (b) The mayor shall enforce these rules of decorum. If a commissioner believes that a rule has been broken, said commissioner can raise a point of order. A second is not required. The mayor can rule on the question or the mayor can allow the commissioners to debate the issue and decide the issue by majority vote.
